FINCH
One of my GGG Grandmothers was Mariah Finch Jennings. Though I haven't found absolute proof, I believe she is a daughter of Thomas Finch & Susanna/Susan Smith Finch. Thomas seems to be the only Finch brother who remained in Spartanburg District and raised a family. I believe all the Finchs now living in Spartanburg are their descendants.

John Finch, Sr., we think. was born in Fairfax, VA, c. 1755-60, and died in Spartanburg c. 1810. In 1790, John Finch's household had 4 males under 16; 1 male over 16; and 5 females. John Finche's wife was Jane Keen/Keene. She and her father, James Keene, came to Spartanburg with John Finch or he came with them. James Keene and John Finch bought and sold land over the years. Those land records name sons of John Finch and grandsons of James Keene. Jane Keene Finch's estate was in court records of 26 Dec 1840, died intestate and sole surviving heir of her father, James Keene.

From those land records, Finch Families of Dixie, 300 Years in the South, probate records, etc., I think John Finch, Sr. & Jane Keene had these children:

1. Thomas Finch, born c. 1776 (1850 census), died ?c.1840; married Susannah/Susan Smith before 1800 in Spartanburg. Both died in Spartanburg.

2. William Finch, born c. 1776, died 1827 ?in Spartanburg. Wife Charity, released her dower when William sold land on 6 Nov 1824; In 1830, Charity Finch, born c. 1774-80, was in Hall Co., GA. Isaac Finch. born 1800-1810, was living near Charity in Hall Co.

3. James K. Finch, born before 1784, md. but wife's name not known.

4. John Finch, Jr., in 1819, bought a lot in town of Gainesville, GA. In 1809, while living in Jackson Co., GA, John sold the land in Spartanburg which his father had deeded to him.

5. Sarah Finch, not found in a census by name. John, Jr. deeded to his sister Sarah, the personal property and household goods which their father had given to John.

Thomas & Susannah may be the ancestors of all the Finches now living in Spartanburg County. Her father was John Smith, one of the original 5 Smith brothers from Bull Run.

Thomas & Susanna's children:

1. James K. Finch, born 29 Mar 1801, died 10 Jan 1880; buried in Cedar Springs Baptist Church Cemetery; Married 1) Milly Bagwell; 2) Susan _?_

2. Enoch Finch, born c. 1802 Spartanburg; died before 1830 in Pickens Co., AL

3. John S. Finch. born c. 1803 (census); died 1862, Spartanburg; buried Oak Grove Baptist Church Cemetery. Married Mary Anna "Polly" Coan/Cowan

No record has been found that names Mariah in this family. She could be the daughter of one of Thomas' brothers but she remained in Spartanburg, where many of her descendants still live. Mariah named one of her sons "Simpson," a named used in the Finch family. (Mariah is my GGG Grandmother. I live less than 1/4 mile from the Jennings Family graveyard).
4. Mariah Finch, born in 1803; died Oct 1873 and is probably buried in an unmarked grave in the Jennings family graveyard. Her husband, William H. Jennings, Sr. bought land less than 1/2 mile from Benjamin Finch's homeplace.

5. Lucinda Finch, born c. 1805; died 30 May 1881; Married John Stephens, Jr. She is mentioned as the wife of John in Bethlehem Baptist Church Records of March 1842.

6. Willis Finch, born c. 1808; Before 1837, in GA; After 1850, to AL; Married 1) Elizabeth Harris; 2) Matilda McClung

(Mariah was a very close neighbor of Benjamin)
7. Benjamin Finch, born 30 Jan 1809, died in 1802; buried at Bethlehem Baptist Church Cemetery (about 3 miles from where Mariah & Benjamin lived); Married Mary A. "Polly" Caldwell; Benjamin shot and killed Dr. Gideon King on 17 Dec 1861. A trial by jury ruled it an accident, but there had been hard feeling between them. Dr. King had circulated among the SC soldiers in VA, a broadside entitled "12 We Wonders" which accused unnamed persons of treason and cowardice. It had been rumored that Ben Finch was harboring his son, William, as a deserter from the Confederate Army. Several of Ben Finch's sons and sons-in-law died in the war.

8. Emily (Euretha in one census) Finch. born c. 1812, died Jun 1881, Spartanburg Co; Married William Stephens.

9. Harvey Finch, born c. 1813; died in Benton (later Calhoun) Co., AL; farmer in Spartanburg in 1850; Married Margaret "Peggy" __?__

10. Jane Finch, born in Spartanburg Co, SC; died c. 1848, in Spartanburg Co. Married Elias K. Wingo. Jane was not listed in 1850 census; the youngest child was age 2 in 1850.

11. L.K. Simpson Finch. born 20 Dec 1816, died 3 March 1900, in Spartanburg Co., SC; buried Oak Grove Baptist Church Cemetery. Simpson Finch and his wife Cynthia were received as members of Bethlehem Baptist Church at January meeting 1849. A group of Bethlehem members were dismissed to start a new church near Mr. Legg's. This might have been Oak Grove. On page 243, Finch Families of Dixie: "There is an old Bible in the possession of Cora Finch Pollard from which dates for Simpson Finch were obtained in 1970."

FINCH, John S. 22 Oct 1804 SC USA brothers James Ben Simpson Enoch
From:cubapro@gte.net> In the "History of Spartanburg County" book, it mentions on p. 278 Ch.20- Smith Family that just before the Revolutionary War, 5 brothers came from Bull Run,VA:James,Fleming, Thomas,John and Charles. It mentions that John Smith had three children;
a son named Thomas, a crippled daughter, and a daughter named Susanna
SMITH whom married
Thomas FINCH,and had at least 4 children:James FINCH, Benjamin FINCH, Simpson FINCH and Enoch FINCH.
I have in my records a Susan (possibly Susanna)Smith,born 1774 in SC, who married a Thomas FINCH,born 1776 in SC.I know my they had at least one son named John FINCH b.October 22,1804 SC. The majority of my ancestors were born and raised in Spartanburg Co.
My question lies in - Is it possible that Susanna Smith and Thomas
FINCH had a son named John S. FINCH as well as James FINCH, Benjamin
FINCH, Simpson FINCH, & Enoch FINCH? Do you see any connections?
Thank you Jennifer

Andrew Coan/Cowen History p.1

COAN

Andrew Cowen (the original spelling) was born in Antrim County, Ireland, in June 1761.

His brothers and sisters, including himself, were --

Annie married John Moy, in Ireland, See Moy Chart.

Elizabeth married Samuel Snoddy. See his chart.

Mollie married a Stewart or Crawford.?

James married McGee. See his sketch.

Andrew Cowen came to America at the age of seventeen, in company with the Snoddys, who were no doubt already related to him. They came by way of Charleston, S.C., and were members of the second colony of Scotch-Irish that came over in 1767 or 1768 and settled in the neighborhood of Nazereth Church (Presbyterian), Spartanburg, S. C.

Col. Moore thinks Dr. Howe's date was the correct one the differing from Londrum.

Andrew Cowen and Mary Snoddy, daughter of John and Jean (Cowen) Snoddy, were married, probably in an early year of the evolutionary war, and they made their home in sight of and just below Nazareth church, on the spot where Mr John Page now lives (1918).

Andrew Cowen was a soldier in the Rev ar and fought in the battle of Cowpens, Jan 17, 1781. His service is recorded in the office of the Secretary of the South Carolina Historical Society as follows:

State of South Carolina,
Gentlemen:
Please Deliver to John Lindsay the indents due to me for my service done to the publick and other legacy as a soldier in the said service. Included in returns made by Col. Robert Anderson to the Auditor's office.
Given under my hand at Camp this 8th May of December 1785.

John H. Finch was the son of Willis Finch. Willis moved to Georgia from South Carolina in the 1820s. He later moved his family to Calhoun County, Alabama where he was living in 1860. His son, John H. Finch, married Jane Cohen/Coan/Kuhn in 1859. (haven't proven her surname but it is one of these). John H. and Jane had a daughter in 1861 whom they named Emily Elizabeth. Soon there was a Civil War in America. John H. Finch answered the call of the Confederacy and enlisted in Alabama Company F, Stewart's Cavalry. He was captured by the Union Army in Lawrence County, Alabama on 12 August 1864, and was sent to Camp Chase as a prisoner of war. On 15 November 1864, John H. Finch died of pneumonia. Because John H. Finch had one child before dying in a Union Prisoner of war camp at the age of 26, we and our descendants are here today.

It is more likely than not that Jane Finch the widow remarried, although no record has been found to prove this. Emily Elizabeth Finch married Vincent Manassas Telles in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana 17 December 1878.

Emily Elizabeth Finch and Vincent Manassas Telles are our gr gr grandparents through Marie Roberts Phillips Gregory.

Dear Debra: Willis Finch was my great great grandfather. He apparently was born in SC in 1808, then moved to Ga and on then to Alabama. He died 1868 in Ala, in or near Lamar Country.

He had a son, George Washington Finch, b. 6-20-1849 in Ga and died 1-8-1923 in Hot Springs, Ark.

The name George Washington was a very popular with our folks on those days. There are several on my Finch side and one on my mother's side.
I will be more than happy to respond to any info you need that I have. Just drop me a line at billf@kci.net.
Thanks for the info.

These arms belong to the Earls of Aylesford, the principal English branch of the Finch family. In this form, they were not granted until after the earlier Finches had come to Virginia. Sir Thomas Finch of Eastwell Place, Kent, probably bore an earlier and simpler version of them. If you know some Latin, the motto can be a bit puzzling. Voto isn't a verb; it's from votum, which means 'a vow' but also refers to the principles a person lives by. A good translation is:

'to live with no motive concealed.'

THE SPARTANBURG COUNTY SOUTH CAROLINA FINCH FAMILY

Although there were only four FINCH families listed on the 1790 Census, there were other adult FINCHes in SC. Edward and William of Newberry Co have been included in the New Kent Genealogy. It appears to us that either #3. Robert and/or #4. Richard and #4. Thomas of Westmoreland Co, VA had descendants who moved eastward toward Fairfax Co, VA where some stayed while others moved to South Carolina. In 1747 #4. Thomas and his wife Sarah were living in Stafford Co, VA but there is no FINCH in the indices of that county. Fairfax Co was formed in 1742 from Prince William and Loudon Counties.

#4. Thomas can possibly be the Thomas FINCH whose name is in the 1800-01 Deed Book of Fairfax Co. Unfortunately this is one of about a dozen books that were lost in a fire, and all we can say is that he sold land not far from Mt. Vernon to a George Hughly. The same book showed he made a Deed of gift to "NICHOLLS and wife". This name NICHOLLS appears earlier; in Dorothy PARSONS' will she mentions a daughter Mary NICHOLLS.

Later you will read that Thomas FINCH, born 1776 in SC, possibly a grandson of this Thomas, married the daughter of Thomas SMITH, one of four brothers who moved from Fairfax Co, VA to Spartanburg. We think it is quite likely that the John FINCH of the 1790 Census in Spartanburg was the son of Thomas of the 1800-01 deed. We think further that if some of the other unidentified South Carolinians were not John Sr's sons (by an earlier marriage) they could have been his nephews. We really do believe that there are people in this country who have in their possession fragments of family information which might answer these questions.

In 1852 Lewis and Jemima FINCH bought 136½ acres of land "on the road from Hunter's Mill to the old Courthouse", this is near present day Oakton, VA. In 1865 they sold this land to David S. FINCH, no relationship shown. In 1858 John FINCH from Prince William Co executed a deed in Fairfax Co relinquishing all future rights to the property of his intended bride, Mary Ann CASH of Fairfax Co. This land is 1/5 of a parcel, apparently her deceased parents property.

An autobiography published in 1943 by Alonzo FINCH, great-great-grandson of John, gives me my only hint of the Virginia connection. I do not have the entire autobiography but Alonzo says he was born about five miles above Spartanburg on the "Indian Ford Road" on a farm owned in 1943 by C.C.L. FINCH, his uncle. He goes on to say that his grandfather was Benjamin but he does not know the name of his great-grandfather (Thomas FINCH's will names a son Benjamin, and I never find but one Benjamin of the right age to be this son of Thomas).

His story continues with a variation of the three-four-five brother theory, actually his number is four. "Four brothers came from Ireland, pausing in Blackstone, VA where one remained. Another brother went to North Carolina, and one travelled to Alabama." From historical records we find that many British sympathizers moved from Virginia to the Alabama area in 1775 and at least one of the Westmoreland, VA FINCHes was a loyalist. They were followed in 1783 by other planters from Georgia, Virginia, and the Carolinas. Alabama became a state on 14Dec1819, and the Hugh FINCH, born 177_ in SC, who we find there on the first census moved there after 1800.

When settlers moved south and west they usually travelled in a group, and Alonzo says that in this group James KEEN and his daughter Jane, who married John FINCH, Sr were included. The Thomas SMITH family who were in Spartanburg early came from Fairfax Co, VA, and in the early Fairfax Co, VA records there was a Thomas FINCH, although about the only thing we find about him is his name. Thomas SMITH's daughter Susannah SMITH married Thomas FINCH, son of John, Sr. We have, with the available records and some family genealogies, put this family together as well as possible, but it is largely Not Proven, NP.

4. FINCH, John of the 1790C had four males under 16, one over 16, and five females of all ages. In the 1800C there are three females born 1790-1800, John is over 45, and his wife under 45. In 1808 John FINCH executed a "Deed of Gift" to his son John, Jr giving him his homeplace, 200 acres of land, livestock, farming equipment, etc. and made no mention of his wife Jane FINCH. Alonzo's autobiography says that John married Jane, daughter of James KEENE. John, Sr died and his wodow Jane released her "dower" to John, Jr. As the daughter of James KEENE, and I feel she was the only child, she was well-to-do in her own right, and did not need any of John Sr's property. Jane's estate was in court 26Dec1840 "Jane the sole surviving heir of James KEENE has died intestate". There was an estate sale and purchasers were John, Benjamin, and James FINCH; James buying three slaves for $147.50. These appear to be her grandchildren. James KEENE before his death made many deed of gifts to his "grandson William FINCH". This puzzles us; why did he not make similar gifts to his other FINCH grandsons, Thomas, John, Jr, and James?

5. FINCH, William b pr 1780 d 1827, in deed records his wife was named Charity. (See Charity FINCH in SC 1820C) In the 1830C of Hall Co, GA Charity FINCH b 1774-1780 is the right age to be his widow.

6. FINCH, Isaac b 1800-1810 is living near Charity, m ? has infant dau. In 1840 a widow, Martha is the only FINCH found, her dau is the right age to be the infant of 1830C. (See other Isaac same age, apparently son of William's brother James.)

5. John, Jr was apparently living in Jackson Co, GA when his father deeded him the homestead, for in 1809, from Jackson Co, he sold the "gifted land" to Micajah BARNETT. In 1817 from the same Co, John, Jr executed a Deed of Gift, with almost the same wording as the one his father had used, to his sister Sarah. Perhaps he was already established and did not need two households of furniture and farming equipment. In 1819 he bought a lot in the town of Gainesville, GA; Hall Co has been formed. In 1820 he is in Hall Co, GA

There is a male over 45, and one 26-45; either of these can be John, Jr. This brings up a real possibility that John, Jr is older than the other sons of John, Jr and that he is the grandfather and not the father of the four brothers, James, Fairfax, Sidney, and Marion. I have always suspected Jane KEENE was not John, Jr's mother and that he was a step-brother to the other sons. Possibly he had full brothers and sisters, also. It also may mean John, Jr was old enough to have gone to Ohio County, VA at an earlier date, which will mean something to one family among these descendants. In 1823 John, Jr sold his lot in Gainestown, and is gone forever from our records. There are several legends, however. William Amos FINCH, a Hight FINCH descendant, says "Fairfax's mother died and his father remarried a wealthy woman from Chicago. They moved to Alabama, and the father drowned in an accident on the Alabama River. The step-mother returned to Chicago, and wanted all the children to go with her, but only Adam went." Adam wrote back saying how well he liked it there. Well, the Adam J. FINCH who married in Clarke Co, AL in 1842 is the only Adam ever found there, and he definitely moved to Morehouse Parish, LA where he lived until after the Civil War. Another Hight descendant, Charles Petty FINCH born 1882 says "When I was a little boy my grandfather told me that he and Sidney Marion Sr were first cousins". This grandfather, James Monroe FINCH, born 1809, was the son of Hight whose father John FINCH, Jr of Granville Co, NC left a detailed will in 1821, naming his sons and none of those sons moved to GA, where both Fairfax and Sidney Marion said they were born. The third story, given to me in 1970 by 93 year old Betty FINCH, R.N. shortly before her death was simple: "There were four brothers, Fairfax, Sidney M., James who went to Mississippi, and William who went to Texas". (Note: If William FINCH who married Polly SMITH in 1835 in Hall Co is that William, it ties this story up fairly well. We did not find them in Texas.) The following two unidentified women from the Sidney Marion FINCH Bible records could possibly be those two sisters from the 1820 Census of Hall Co.

6. (NP) FINCH, _____ died 7Mar1873, her husband Richard SMALL d Apr1880

6. (NP) FINCH, Adeline N. d Aug1854, wife of Thomas W. COLLIER d 30Jun1874

7. COLLIER, _____ b 24July1847;;James m Josephine, son Thomas Leon b & d 1809

6. (NP) FINCH, Fairfax. We found the cause of death listed on the 1880 mortality schedule of Montgomery Co, MS; heart disease. Quotes from his obituary are included. Here was a fine man. "Rev. Fairfax FINCH was born and raised in Alabama." (Fact: he always said he was born in GA but we think he moved to AL in 1823) "and died at his home in Montgomery Co, MS August 18, 1879, aged 70 years. He embraced religion in early life, and was licensed to preach about 1854". This was after he moved to Kilmichael and built a school on his farm, in his large pasture which was also used for church services. "Brother FINCH carried his religion with him in every relation of his life . . . much of his life he was engaged in teaching" (in 1830 Census of Clarke Co, AL he was a teacher, and in 1840 Census of Troup Co, GA he was teaching) "and he made religious impressions on his pupils that are still manifest in their lives". Fairfax moved to Kilmichael about 1850. In 1853 a Mr. FLOWERS donated land and Friendship Church was organized. Fairfax, Jr was one of the earliest graves. Fairfax married 21July1838 in Troup Co, GA Olivia O'NEAL born 6Sep1816 died 19Apr1889

7. FINCH, Leonidas b 16July1839 d 29 Oct1870 when he tried to stop a fight between two men. His tombstone reads, "Blessed is the Peacemaker".

7. William Marion b 1841, did not return from the War. Descendants say that his parents grieved until their death and made many trips trying to locate his grave.

They moved to the Brown, AL area at about the time of their marriage and the property is still in the family. Early in December of 1850 a cholera epidemic hit Mobile, AL. Sidney went there on a buying trip, and returned. Tying up his boat on the Tombighee River, he died of cholera during the night. His youngest son had been named Fairfax for his brother, but Sylvia changed the name to Sidney Marion Fairfax. Sylvia had an unmarried sister (or could it have been her mother?) Mary H. THOMLINSON whose death is recorded in the family Bible on 30Dec1866. The Bible is in possession of a granddaughter in 1972.

Carolina Spartan/Spartanburg Herald Death Index

This is a listing of death notices that appeared in the Carolina Spartan and Spartanburg Herald newspapers, roughly between 1849 and 1893. Some months and editions of these newspapers no longer exist, along with the years 1852, 1865 and 1877-78. The names are listed alphabetically by surname, and the date indicated is the day on which the death appeared in the newspaper, along with the page number on which it appeared. The abbreviation "CS" stands for Carolina Spartan, and "SH" stands for Spartanburg Herald.

This information originally was indexed by library staff and volunteers many years ago. Unfortunately, many errors were found, and the Kennedy Room staff took on the task of re-indexing these newspapers. This new index is much more complete and accurate. However, since it is a compilation of the old and new indexes, some errors still may exist. If you find an error, please let a Kennedy Room staff member know, and we will try to correct it.

Please be aware that 19th century newspapers did not list obituaries in the way they are published today. A death could be listed anywhere in the newspaper, although in the later years of the 19th century, there often was a heading for death notices. Even when such a heading appeared, though, there still could be deaths listed elsewhere in that edition. Also, the type often is very fine and the editions are in varying degrees of quality, so finding and being able to read a death notice can be challenging.

You will note that death notices for married women often did not list their given names. Instead they used their married names, i.e. Mrs. John Smith instead of Mary Smith. The names were indexed as they appeared in the newspaper. The death notice may provide further information to determine if this is the woman you seek, if it is unclear.

If you find a name listed in this index and would like to read the death notice, you will find the newspapers on microfilm in two locations. The Carolina Spartan microfilm is kept in the microfilm cabinet in the Kennedy Room, and a staff member there will be happy to assist you with it. The Spartanburg Herald microfilm is kept in the microfilm cabinet in the Periodicals Department, across the atrium from the Kennedy Room, and this department also is staffed.

Please let a Kennedy Room staff member know if you need further help with this index.

6. FINCH, Isaac b 1805 SC is in Benton Co (later changed to Calhoun) in 1850C, and father James is in household. His wife is Abbigail. What is confusing is the spacing between the first and second child; this Isaac can easily be the Isaac we had thought to be William & Charity FINCH's son who was in the 1830 Census of Hall Co, GA, and gone in 1840. Both James and William could have named a son born 1800-1810 Isaac.

5. FINCH, Thomas b 1776 m Susan SMITH b 1774, both died prior to 1860 Census. Susan was a descendant of a SMITH who came to VA from WALES and married a FLEMING who had come to VA from FRANCE. The SMITH's lived near Bull Run, VA. In the 1770's their five sons settled near Glenn's Springs in Spartanburg Co, SC. One son James, had two sons, John who lived in Union Co, SC and Enoch who went to SC. Of Fleming and Thomas SMITH no more is known. John SMITH's son, Thomas SMITH, moved to GA, and Susan, above, was one of his two daughters. To us, this is another tie, linking the FINCHes of Spartanburg with the Westmoreland Co family.
6. FINCH, James K. b 1801 m (1) Milly BAGWELL, m (2) Susan who survived him. He did not appear, by census records, to have the large family most FINCHes did. Guardianship records, July 1849, and his estate settlement in Feb 1880 give us all the information we have.

Did Sir Francis Bring Over Finch Cousins?

Virginia Land Patents, Vol. 1. 1623-1643. First item, Sir Francis Wyatt, Governor and Capt. General of Virginia (he was the son of Jane (Finch) Wyatt of Bexley in Kent, England). No Finch names appear in this early period. page 916, Sept. 1643, Sir Francis Wyatt was granted 2,000 acres in Rappahannock County for providing the passage overseas for 40 persons.

Loudon County, Virginia

Feb. 1776, DB M p.56: Thomas BROWN & William FINCH of Cameron Parish, Loudon Co. "whereas Willoughby NORTON of Westmoreland Co, VA did lease this land (this lease recorded in Prince William Co, VA) on 25Dec1741" proved in court 12Aug1776. In June 1778 William FINCH, Jr transferred this lease to James HARDAG. (This is our effort to connect William Sr who went to TN and Willima Jr who stayed in Fauquier Co, VA to the Westmoreland Co family)

Henry Co, VA DB 6 p.350, 1801: "Robert & Polly FINCH from Sanford REAMY". We wonder if this is Robert FINCH in Putnam Co, GA in 1840.

From "The Edwards PLEASANTS VALENTINE PAPERS"

Will of John SIMMS of St. Andrews Parish, Brunswick Co, dat. 12 May1788 pro. 25May1778, makes bequests to: son William SIMMS, to William Randolph, to Ellick WILLIAMS, to William FINCH, to my wife Honour SIMMS, to sons John, Frederick, and Ben SIMMS, to John LIGHTFOOT, to my five youngest children, namely, Mary RANDOLPH, John, Fred, Sarah, and Ben SIMMS

From Hamlin's "THEY WENT THAT-A-WAY"

In 1781 this estate paid William FINCH of Montgomery Co, NC for a years board of Ben SIMMS. Then in the same source, Hamlin's, in 1785, William FINCH, of Brunswick Co, VA sells land in Montgomery Co, NC. We believe if we could learn WHICH William FINCH was connected to the SIMMS family, it would clear up a lot of points on our multitude of Williams.

On the 1800 tax list of Brunswick Co, St. Andrews Parish, William FINCH, 1 white tithable, is listed. (Four years after the death of William who married Tabitha.)

CENSUSES

The following extracts of the census of 1800 to 1840 lists what we have accumulated in our searches. The 1810 Virginia Census was taken from the index of that census. The 1830 Kentucky Census, and the 1840 Censuses of South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama, and Mississippi were ordered from "Cendex" and should be complete. The 1830 Census of Tennessee was purchased from Byron Sistler, and is, I am sure, complete. Others were contributed, searched hurriedly in some cases, and in some cases the microfilm was almost impossible to read. Missouri has been neglected in our search. Since our ancestor went from Virginia to South Carolina to Georgia to Alabama to Mississippi that is the area in which we concentrated much of our research.

INTRODUCTION

This volume of abstracts includes all deeds found in Deed Books X, Y and Z, for Spartanburg District. The deeds were recorded between 1839 and 1848, during which time Spartanburg was a District. This time period was well before Cherokee County was created from part of Spartanburg County. The earliest recorded deed was executed in 1797. A South Carolina Archives microfilm copy was the basis for the abstracts. Those deeds not completely readable on film were checked at the Registrar Mesne Conveyance in Spartanburg.

Each deed originated in Spartanburg District, unless stated otherwise. Courts and local officials are in Spartanburg District, unless explicitly stated. All places are in South Carolina, unless another state or county is named. Adjacent landowners and natural features are included; metes and bounds are not included.

In the index, the modern spelling is used for rivers, creeks, branches, shoals, etc. Personal names in the index retain literal spellings from the deeds. When searching for a surname, each spelling variant must be checked. Besides personal names and names of corporations, the major index entries are: Brigade Orders, Cemeteries, Creeks and Branches, Places, Rivers, Roads and Streets, Slaves.

In many deeds, a clerk was inconsistent in spelling a name. Some clerks wrote certain letters nearly the same, for example, L and S, I and J. Lower case letters were often alike within the same deed, for example, a, o, and e. The similarities account for many of the variations in spelling of personal names.

The individual named in a dower release was the wife of the grantor, unless another relationship is stated in the abstract.

This book of abstracts is a guide to the original books. Whenever possible, the deed books should be consulted, either on film, or at the Registrar Mesne Conveyance in Spartanburg.
